AWEN CULTURAL TRUST IS CURRENTLY RECRUITING FOR A CHARITY TRUSTEE

ABOUT THE ORGANISATION

Awen Cultural Trust is a registered charity with objectives to enhance cultural opportunities in Bridgend and the wider region. Our diverse portfolio comprises theatres, libraries, community centres, a country house and park and two work-based training programmes in horticulture and carpentry for adults with disabilities. We engage with around one million visits every year and provide valuable access and opportunities to a wide range of activities that support learning, wellbeing and inclusion.

ABOUT THE ROLE

We are looking for an enthusiastic, suitably experienced and committed individual to join our Board of Trustees.

As a trustee, you will help us think creatively, challenge us constructively and represent Awen with enthusiasm. This is a voluntary role. As a minimum, it will require attendance at up to 6 Board meetings per year, a contribution to sub-committees or working groups of the Board, and the ability to act as an ambassador for Awen by attending events and functions on behalf of the charity. The Board help guide, support and challenge Executive Leadership Team in achieving their goals.

Trustees are collectively and individually responsible for the overall governance and strategic direction of the charity, developing the organisation's aims, objectives and goals in accordance with the governing document and any legal and regulatory guidelines.

ABOUT YOU

We want someone with the credibility and passion to make a difference to the lives of our beneficiaries. We are particularly interested to hear from people with a background in either health and social care, media and communications, the learning disability sector or tourism destination management. Applications are particularly welcome from candidates who can bring diversity to the Board and who have an understanding of the challenges faced by our communities here in Bridgend and South Wales.

A respected individual, you will be able to demonstrate strong leadership experience, excellent networking capabilities, a strategic approach, and a commitment to our purpose and values. You will have a passion for supporting local communities and to using your experiences and skills to help Awen Cultural Trust realise its vision that, through culture, we can deliver better outcomes for individuals, families and communities in South Wales.

This role does not have any financial remuneration, however, reasonable expenses for travel may be claimed.
