

Letter of Support for Awen

At Flossy and Boo, we have been lucky enough to work with Awen on a number of projects over the years and have always been amazed by the connections that they have with their communities through their venues and activities, something that is very important to us as a company.

They have always been a great support to our work, bringing Flossy and Boo shows to their theatres and community venues, as well as welcoming our workshops and other activities into their libraries. Awen are a great champion of Welsh and Wales based artists and companies, supporting new and innovative work from a huge range of art forms and supporting artists at all stages of their careers.

We have been working with them as partners on a Connect and Flourish project - 'Where We Begin | Dechrau'r Daith'. This is a project that connects young people, venues and family audiences with artists to boost creation and exploration of Family Arts Activity in Wales, amplifying unheard voices from artists and audiences. The project explores barriers that families and young people face when accessing the Arts and involves a range of artists and organisations to evolve as a sector, enriching the current and future landscape of Arts for Family Audiences.

Awen are a key creative anchor in Wales and we are sure will continue to play a vital role in the Welsh Arts landscape, engaging with communities and artists alike. We would love to continue our work with them going forward.
